- Is the capacity limit of the room ample for the number of candidates?
- Is the ventilation adequate for the rated seating capacity?
- Is the lighting bright enough to read the examination booklet and see the answer sheet clearly?
- Are you able to regulate the temperature of the room? If not, is someone readily available that will be able to regulate the temperature on the day of the test?
- Are there any posters, blackboard notes, or other information posted in the room that may give away answers to the examination? If yes, can these materials be easily removed and stored?
- Will you or another Test Administrator be able to see all candidates at all times?
- Is the room quiet and free of noisy distractions?
- Are candidates able to hear directions clearly from all areas?
- Is there sufficient workspace for you to handle the examinations securely?
- Is there an emergency source of light in case of a power outage?
- Can the room be locked in case of an evacuation?
- Are the room, cabinet, closet, and file locks strong enough to deter someone from breaking them?

SEATING ARRANGEMENT

Yes or No

- Are individual desks a minimum of three feet apart in each direction? Or can candidates sit a minimum three feet apart in each direction if long tables are used?
- If the seating is tiered, is there enough seating to meet the minimum of three feet apart in each direction for candidates?
- Are there enough desks or tables to meet the required spacing for candidates?
- If individual desks are used is there enough desktop space to fit both the examination booklet and answer sheet?
- Is the surface of the desk easy to write on?
